

Block Builders

Architecture³

Architecture. Cubed.

What looks like a set of six simple blocks is suddenly transformed into skyscrapers, modern art sculptures, vehicles from the future or just about anything else you can imagine. Block Builders is a new generation of building blocks that can be imagined, configured and manipulated into perpetual creations. Includes 50 challenge cards with three levels of difficulty where young builders must attempt to recreate the structure on the card using only the number of indicated blocks. A great exercise in visual perception and spatial awareness, Block Builders is one of those rare toys that is constantly in perpetual motion! Ages 5 and up.
